

5. Did he take a photo of a buffalo? No, the buffalo isn't in the photo.
6. What is in Felipe's photo?
7. Felipe took a fabulous photo. It's the photo of his family and the cat Fufú.

12 Let's Go Visiting!

by Nancy María Grande Tabor
Illustrated by Tony Griego

2. The deer, the turkey and the dove are going visiting. They're going in a sailboat.
3. The wind blows away the sail. The boat won't come or go. The animals aren't going visiting.
4. They can't see the sail. The boat won't go. What are they going to do?
5. The deer, the turkey and the dove have an idea.
6. The turkey gets up on the deer. The dove gets on too.
7. The wind comes. The boat goes. Hooray! Hooray! They're going visiting!

13 The Kitty at the Lake

by Nancy María Grande Tabor
Illustrated by Anthony Lewis

2. A kitty cat is walking by the lake. The kitty's very skinny.
3. Some ants pass with some crumbs. "Do you want this crumb?" asks the ant.
4. "No, I don't like crumbs," says the kitty.
5. An iguana passes with a mango. "Do you want a mango?" asks the iguana.
6. "No, I don't like mango," says the kitty.
7. A turtle passes with a worm. "Do you want a worm?" asks the turtle.
8. "No, I don't like worms," says the kitty.
9. The gorilla gives her a banana. The seagull with the sweet tooth gives her sweets.
10. But the skinny kitty won't eat.
11. "I have an idea," says the gull. "Let's go visit a friend of mine."
12. In a row they go—the turtle, the gorilla, the ants, the iguana, and the kitty. And through the clouds flies the gull.
13. "Hello! This kitty won't eat anything," says the gull. "She won't eat crumbs, mangos, worms, bananas or sweets."
14. "Cats don't eat those things," says the girl. "Cats like milk!"
15. The girl gives her a little milk. The kitty licks her whiskers.

14 Cat Goes to the River!

by Graciela Vidal
Illustrated by Anthony Lewis

2. "I'm going to the river," says the seal. The seal goes to the river every day. She suns herself on a rock.
3. "I'm going to the river," says the frog. The frog goes to the river every day. She spends the day on a branch.
4. "I'm going to the river," says the duck. The duck goes to the river every day. He swims, rows and passes the time.
5. They go in a row. They go to the river: Seal, Duck and Frog. On the way they see Rita. Blond Rita is going with her cat.
6. Rita and Cat are going to the river. At the river lives Rat. Cat is going to the river to play with Rat.
7. "Are you going to the river?" asks Rita. "Yes, to my rock," says Seal. "Yes, to my branch," says Frog. "Yes, that's how I pass the time," says Duck.
8. Seal, Frog, Duck and Rita are at the river. What about Cat? Where's Cat?
9. "Where's my cat?" asks Rita. Cat isn't with Seal, nor with Frog. Cat isn't with Duck, nor with Rita.
10. "Where's my cat?" asks Rita. Seal, Frog and Duck go from bush to bush. "Where's Cat?"

11. Cat isn't in the bush. Is Cat with Rat? Where's Rat?
12. "Where are Cat and Rat?" asks Rita. Cat and Rat aren't in the bush. Cat and Rat aren't on the branch.
13. "Here's my rock," says Seal. "My rock has a tail." "Is it a rat?" asks Frog from her branch.
14. "No, it's my cat!" says Rita. "She came to play with Rat," says Duck. "She came to my rock," says Seal.
15. They all pass the time at the river. Cat and Rat, Rita, Seal, Frog and Duck.

15 Terremoto

by Leyla Torres
Illustrated by Jamie Smith

2. Tomás and his dog Terremoto are bored. Tomás's toy car is lost. "Let's look for it!" says Grandpa.
3. Could it be upstairs? Grandpa, Tomás and Terremoto look for the car in every room.
4. They look for it everywhere. The car isn't there!
5. Could it be downstairs? They look for it under the couch. The car isn't there!
6. They look for it on the floor, in a jar and under a cap. They look all over the house. The car isn't there!
7. Could it be in Terremoto's doghouse?
8. They all run to Terremoto's house. The car is in the doghouse!
9. What's wrong now? The car is broken!
10. "Cheer up! We'll fix it with my tools," says Grandpa.
11. Now what's wrong? The tools aren't there!
12. They look upstairs and downstairs and in every corner for the tools. They look all over the house. The tools aren't there!
13. Where could they be?
14. Could they be in Terremoto's house?
15. Tomás and Grandpa run to Terremoto's house. The tools are in the doghouse!

16 The Shark's Treasure

by Nynó Vargas
Illustrated by Tony Griego

2. A shark is swimming through the sea. He sees a chest among the coral. Could it be a treasure? A golden treasure?
3. The shark pulls at the rope on the chest. But he can't open it. Who can help him?
4. A turtle is walking along the sand. "Can you help me?" asks the shark. "It's a treasure!"
5. The shark pulls. The turtle pulls. But the treasure doesn't come out.
6. "I can't go on," says the turtle with a red face.
7. A parrot is walking along the sand. "Can you help us?" the shark asks him. "It's a treasure!"
8. The shark pulls. The turtle pulls. The parrot pulls. But the treasure doesn't open.
9. "I can't go on," says the parrot with a red face.
10. A butterfly is flying over the sand. "Can you help us?" asks the shark. "It's a treasure!"
11. The shark pulls. The turtle pulls. The parrot pulls. The butterfly pulls. They all pull on the rope.
12. At last the chest comes out! There's no gold in the chest. "There's no treasure!" says the parrot.
13. "There's no gold in the chest, but I found a treasure!" says the shark. "A friend is a treasure that's worth more than gold!"
14. "I'm your friend!" says the parrot. "I'm your friend!" says the turtle. "I'm your friend!" says the butterfly.
15. "My friends are my treasure!"